

INFECTIOUS DISEASES

Pursuant to K.S.A. 65-122, K.S.A. 72-5213, and any other pertinent statutes and administrative regulations of the state of Kansas in the interest of public safety and health, the superintendent, or his/her designee, may exclude from any school district building or property any person reasonably suspected of being infected with a contagious disease as defined by K.S.A. 65-128. Any school district employee, volunteer, or other person so excluded may return to school district premises upon presentation of a certificate of health as required by law.
